Product Description

The amaran Peak Light Stand Clamp is a versatile accessory designed to mount the amaran Peak portable battery system to light stands, tripods, and a wide range of surfaces and objects. With a secure metal clamping mechanism and a custom silicone strap, the Light Stand Clamp offers flexible positioning for mounting your power exactly where you need it – whether creating in studios, on location, or outdoors.

Flexible clamp for quick and reliable setups. With a durable metal build and wide clamping range of up to 5.87cm (2.31in), the Light Stand Clamp securely mounts the amaran Peak to light stands, tripods, tables, and more. A twist-lock handle allows for fast, tool-free tightening, while internal rubber pads protect surfaces and ensure a stable, slip-free grip in any environment.

Secure, custom-fit silicone strap. Designed specifically for the amaran Peak, the integrated silicone strap wraps snugly around the battery system and locks into its built-in slot for a secure hold. It's thick, high-tension build provides durable support without scratching or slipping, letting you power your shoots with confidence – even in dynamic or unconventional setups.
