Product Description

The amaran Verge Desk Clamp Stand is a fully adjustable, aluminum desk clamp designed to mount the amaran Verge or Verge Max lights directly to your desk. Featuring the amaran Verge Lock for fast, tool-free setups and a 360° swing arm with 180° pan and tilt adjustments – it's built to elevate your desktop content with smooth, flexible positioning.

amaran Verge Lock mounting. Instantly snap your amaran Verge or Verge Max light into place with the amaran Verge Lock – a quick-locking, tool-free mounting system that ensures fast, secure mounting so you can stay focused on your shot.

360° swing arm with 180° pan and tilt. The amaran Verge Desk Clamp Stand's 360° swing arm with 180° pan and tilt adjustments lets you reach further across your desk or precisely position your light exactly where you need it – perfect for straight-on talking head content, overhead tabletop product shots, and every angle in between – all without moving your desk setup.

Desk clamp for space-saving setups. Clamp securely to desks and surfaces up to 7cm (2.75in) thick, maximizing your workspace without sacrificing flexibility. And with integrated cable management hooks, you can keep cords hidden from view.

Flexible 1m height adjustment. The vertical column offers 1m (3.28ft) of smooth adjustment, allowing you to easily raise your light above monitors or lower it for tabletop lighting – adapting effortlessly to your creative needs.
